

A Sea Symphony

Vaughan Williams “A Sea Symphony” Workshop and Family Come and Sing, led by Rufus Frowde and the Hardynges Choir followed by a picnic on the playing field.

Saturday 31st August 2019 9.30am – 1.30pm

St Georges School, Sun Lane, Harpenden, AL5 4TD

Programme:

9.30 – 11.00am A Sea Symphony Workshop

This is an opportunity for members of the St Cecilia Festival Society Chorus, or those very familiar with the work, to explore this exciting piece with conductor Rufus Frowde.

11.00 – 11.20 Coffee Break, arrival of family and friends for the Family and Friends Come and Sing

11.20 – 11.30 Performance of A Sea Symphony highlights

11.30 – 12.30 A Fun Come and Sing, music provided

12.30 – 1.30 Picnic on the St Georges School playing field

Free to attend, bring your own score and picnic but let us know you are coming by contacting: 0845 4751664 or online at tickets@hardyngechoir.org